After school Teachers Needed
Location: Morristown, NJ
Part-time, September - June

The Afterschool on South, part of the Success for All Families before and after school Program in Morristown, NJ is looking for after school instructors. Weekdays, 3:00 pm – 6:00 pm. Children arrive by buses from the Morris School District and the schedule includes snack, homework, outdoor recreation time, centers, games and puzzles, arts and crafts and other activities as assigned. We promote a safe, welcoming, inclusive environment. We operate in the classroom space at St. Peter's Church, South Street and Miller Road in Morristown

Qualifications:
- Must be at least 18 years of age, minimum of a HS Diploma or GED equivalent required.
- Previous experience working with children preferred.
- A desire to work with children in a school age setting (Pre-K3 – 7th grade)
- Must be reliable and detail oriented.
- Must be patient, enthusiastic, team player and possess a good sense of humor.
- Required fingerprint/background check prior to start in compliance with NJ State Department of Child and Family Services.
- First Aid, CPR and AED certified (certifications can be earned upon hire).
- Continuing professional development required (can be taken on line).
- Spanish speaking a plus, but not required.

Work Hours:
3:00 pm – 6 pm
Some flexibility to accommodate children during early dismissals: 1:15 – 6pm – advance notice given.

December 2018
Pay Range: $12.00 - $15.00
If interested, contact: Dee Klikier, Director: dklikier@stpetersmorristown.org or 973-538-0555 ext. 111.